Ballad Of San Francisco

Caedmon's Call

So I'm walking down the street somewhere outside of San Francis co And I don't really know my way around I'd love to stay a day or two and get into some trouble But tomorrow I'll be in another town

There's at least one coffee bar for every single couple And there's at least a couple in this place Strange the things you notice when the walls are closing in And the walls are closing in on me today

So where oh where can I find someone, anyone 'Cause there's no way out of here But here is where I live and so I guess that means The carrot's gonna dangle for at least another year

I love anonymity and I love being noticed Just the same as anybody else Years ago I told you how I loved to be alone These days I'd be perjuring myself

So where oh where can I find someone, anyone 'Cause there's no way out of here But here is where I live and so I guess that means The carrot's gonna dangle for at least another year

It's like you gave me up just like I gave up drinking coffee So I guess I would've done the same So now I know I'm lost somewhere outside of San Francisco But I'm still glad that I came
