

From The Bughouse

Caesars

Do you hear the storm out there?
I wish it would blow the whole town away
Do you think I'd even care?
If you would have passed me by in the street today

From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you

Do you see these weary eyes?
Well they better hold those right for your alibi
Do you hear the storm out there?
I wish it would blow the whole town away

From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you

From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
From the bughouse
From the gutter
This one goes to you
