

Live It Back Down

Cafuné

Whenever you're lonely
You act like you own me
As long as you know me
I'm letting you down
Say we're just going and living life only
Thing that I want is to live it back down
Down

Hold on, the world is ending
The old one's gone, there's no pretending
So long, they're still spending it all, it all, it all, it all
Hold on, the world is ending
It burns strong, a break, a bending
It's far gone, the chance for mending it all, it all, it all, it all
(It all, it all, it all, it all)

You think your opponent
Will wait for the moment
The word has been spoken
They're bringing you out
Thinking I'm on it
And holding my comment
Killing the comet
On its way down
Down

Save our souls and make a slow retreat
Yeah I should know just how to taste defeat
Just a matter of time before we burn it
But the biz man don't lose sleep, not a wink no
I can't stand the sight of you
I had no plans to, I'm pay-to-view
Just a mirror for the rear
Mirror for the rear view

Whenever you're lonely
You act like you own me (act like you own me)
As long as you know me
I'm letting you down (down)
Said I'm just holding on tight like the roping
Slip into hoping
They're turning you out
You think your opponent
Will wait for the moment (wait for the moment)
The word is an omen
They're bringing a drought (drought)
For my atonement
I'll fix what I've broken (fix what I've broke)
Withdraw enrollment
And drown the account (account)

Don't wanna call it
I'm holding my comment
Killing the comet
On its way down
(Hold on, the world is ending
The old one's gone, there's no)
