Am I vain for thinking every song you write is still about me
Or is it safe to say that that's not true?
If you were God
And I was just a girl looking for understanding
Would you tell me why you made the sky blue?

Don't need to save ya
When I'm not your baby
When there's no more songs left
And the feelings faded

Gotta let you go now
'Cause it'll drive me crazy
When the walls all cave in
And I'm tired of chasing

Don't need to save ya
When I'm not your baby
And the feelings faded

Gotta let you go now
'Cause it'll drive me crazy
When the walls all cave in
And I'm tired of chasing
Don't need to save ya

Don't waste my time
In and out with you
We'll be just fine
But I can't take the silence
The silence is doubt
Falling and fighting it out
I can't take another word out of your mouth

'Cause I know that

Everything I want
Is right in front me
Thinking of the nights
When we were one

Hold my hands
Dance until we can't

Hold my hands
Dance until I give up

Everything I want
Is right in front me
Thinking of the nights
When we were one

Hold my hands
Dance until we can't

Hold my hands

Dance until I give up

Don't need to save ya

Gotta let you go now
When the walls all cave in
