A Void in My Heart

Cain's Dinasty

Sitting in a cold and lonely chair Waiting for the change that makes me free

Searching for hope in the wind Lost in a void of lonely pain

Thinking in the things that I once lost Maybe you will return ohh ohh ohh

How hard is to start again How hard is to smile today How hard is to awake everyday without you...

Walking alone through the time Sailing under the sad light of the moon

Sometimes we live our golden dreams But reality is not like fairy tale

Thinking in the things that I once lost Maybe you will return ohh ohh ohh

How hard is to start again How hard is to smile today How hard is to awake everyday without you...
