

Any More

CAIN

You got a voice in your head
The same old guilt and regret
You heard a thousand times before
After the choices you've made
You're waiting for me to say
I couldn't love you anymore

The enemy has lied to you
But listen to me, here's the truth

I couldn't love you any more
Than I do right now
There's nowhere I wouldn't go
To get to you my child
Take a look at the cross
Then you'll know it for sure
I couldn't love you
I couldn't love you any more
Any more
Any more
Than I do right now
Any more
Any more

When the sin and the shame
Try to lock you away
My grace is breaking down the door
Yeah
You're the one that I'm running after
You're mine and you matter
Your life's worth dying for

I couldn't love you any more
Than I do right now
There's nowhere I wouldn't go
To get to you my child
Take a look at the cross
Then you'll know it for sure
I couldn't love you
I couldn't love you any more
Any more
Any more
Than I do right now
Any more
Any more

The past doesn't own you anymore
The grave doesn't hold you anymore
Yeah
I say that you're worth dying for
And I couldn't love you anymore

I couldn't love you any more
Than I do right now (Any more)
To get to you my child
Take a look at the cross (Yeah)

Then you'll know it for sure
I couldn't love you (Oh)
I couldn't love you any more
Any more
Any more (Any more)
Than I do right now
Any more
Any more
(I couldn't love you any more)
Any more
Any more
Than I do right now
Any more
Any more
