

Starfire

Caitlyn Smith

It's like I'm walking on a highway, staring straight into the sun

With the universe around me waiting for me to fall down

Your love is like a junkie, just a little loaded, huh

Your words are like a whiskey river rolling off of your tongue

But you won't burn out this starfire

This feeling is dancing in my flames

Throw me and I'll just burn brighter

Oh, you can't burn out this starfire

No matter what you say

I won't ever be perfection, ever be your golden child

I'm not spinning on this planet just for me to make you smile

I love my crooked halo, hell, I won't apologize

You can touch it all you want, but no matter how you try

You won't burn out this starfire

This feeling is dancing in my flames

Throw me and I'll just burn brighter

No, you can't burn out this starfire

No matter what you say

Oh you ain't ever, ever gonna burn me out

Oh you can try, but you ain't ever

You ain't ever, oh nah, nah, nah

You ain't ever, ever gonna burn me out

Oh-oh-oh-oh-oooh

You won't burn out this starfire

This feeling is dancing in my flames

Throw me and I'll just burn brighter

No, you can't burn out this starfire

No matter what you say

Yeah, yeah, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh-oooh, oh-oh

You ain't ever, ever gonna burn me out

You ain't ever, ever gonna burn me out

You ain't ever, ever gonna burn me out

You ain't ever, ever gonna burn me out
