

Haters

Caity Baser

I heard they hate the look that I got in my eyes
So I'ma keep on doing it
And they really don't like my style
But it's better to be different
I'm just tryna live off bad bitch energy
And making sure I'm always nice to all of my enemies
'Cause we're a team and without them, I just couldn't be me
Love to see them hating 'cause I'm chasing all of my dreams

And I always do what I want
And nobody can't be stopping it
And not only do I talk that talk
You best believe that I be walking it
You'll never see me in some Joni jeans
Yeah, I'll be dressing like I just hopped out the '70s
Looking like I could be a brand new band member of Queen
Wearing them jeans, the ones that flow out at the knee

Haters gonna gate (Haters gonna hate)
No matter what you say (No matter what you say)
If you could tell by my face (If you could tell by my face)
I never cared anyway
And no matter what you do (No matter what you do)
They hating 'cause they ain't you (They hate 'cause they ain't you)
The best thing that you can do (What you gotta do?)
Is show them how your dreams came true

They say, "Caity, why'd you speak so loud?"
Said I'm always on a mad ting
And if you gig, there will be no crowd
Just your mum standing (Well done, darling)
And when you see my name in flashing lights
You'll be running from the back with your shitty signs
Talking 'bout how we been friends for most of our lives
Guess you forgot about the times you made me cry

Haters gonna gate (Haters gonna hate)
No matter what you say (No matter what you say)
If you could tell by my face (If you could tell by my face)
I never cared anyway
And no matter what you do (No matter what you do)
They hating 'cause they ain't you (They hate 'cause they ain't you)
The best thing that you can do (What you gotta do?)
Is show them how your dreams came true

Baggy jeans, that's me (That's me)
Messy bun, that's me (That's me)
No makeup, that's me (That's me, what)
High heels, that's not me (Yeah, fuck that shit, yeah)
Baggy jeans, that's me (That's me)
Jersey, that's me (That's so me, man)
Chatting shit, that's me (That's me)
Ner-ner-ner-ner-ner

I always do what I want (I do what I want)
And nobody can't be stopping it
And not only do I talk that talk

You best believe that I be walking it (I be walking it)
You'll never see me in some Joni jeans
Yeah, I'll be dressing like I just hopped out the '70s
Looking like I could be a brand new band member of Queen
Wearing them jeans, the ones that flow out at the knee
(Ooh, these haters, ooh, these haters)

Haters gonna gate (Haters gonna hate)
No matter what you say (No matter what you say)
If you could tell by my face (If you could tell by my face)
I never cared anyway (No, I never cared)
