

I'll Be Here For You

Caity Baser

I, I've got your back
And you know I, I mean that
I'll be your big sister
And I'll put you above every little stupid mister
And I'll even take a picture and put it on Insta
And I'll caption it, "Girl, I missed ya"

And you know that you're never on your own
'Cause I'm on the other side of the phone
And you tried hatin' yourself but please, don't
'Cause you can come to mine if your house ain't a home

I'll be here for you (You), you
I'll wipe your tears for you (You), you
'Cause I know I've got girl issues
You'll be here for me too
That's why I'm here for you (You), you

You, you've got my back
And I know you, you-you, you mean that
Like you'll be one of my sisters
And you'll put me above every little stupid mister
And you'll even take a picture and put it on Insta
And you'll caption it, "Caity, I missed ya"

And I know that I'm never on my own
'Cause you're on the other side of the phone
And I tried hatin' on myself but I won't
'Cause I come to yours, 'cause my house ain't a home

I'll be here for you (You), you
I'll wipe your tears for you (You), you
'Cause I know I've got girl issues
You'll be here for me too
That's why I'm here for you (You), you

I'll be here for you, I'll be here for you, I'll be here for you
You got me and I got you
I'll be here for you, I'll be here for you, I'll be here for you
You got me and I got you (Said, I'll be)
I'll be here for you (Said, I'll be), I'll be here for you (I'll be), I'll be here for you
You got me and I got you
I'll be here for you (Said, I'll be), I'll be here for you (I'll be), I'll be here for you (I'll be)
You got me and I got you
