

Leave Me Alone

Caity Baser

Hehe, de-de-da-da-da-da no, fuck off

Why you texting me if you say you're not interested?
Why you pulling up to my house to get in my bed?
Something ain't adding up, oh, none of this is making sense
Always had your back, but now you're stabbing mine instead

One minute you do and one minute you don't
You give it all that at the end of the phone
You didn't mean it, I already know
Just give it a rest and please let me go
Go, go, go

Leave me alone
'Cause I don't wanna talk anymore
Don't wanna wake up to your clothes sat on my bedroom floor, oh no
You like it how it was all before
But that was then and this is now
Wow, leave me alone-one-one
Oh, why can't you just leave me alone-one-one?
Why can't you just leave me alone?

When you've had a few too many it is crystal clear
That you miss me, wanna touch me like no one is here
Well, I'm so over that, so don't be getting no ideas
Too late you missed it, go fuck on another new bitch 'cause

One minute you do and one minute you don't
You give it all that at the end of the phone
You didn't mean it, I already know
Just give it a rest and please let me go
Go, go, go

Leave me alone
'Cause I don't wanna talk anymore
Don't wanna wake up to your clothes sat on my bedroom floor, oh no
You like it how it was all before
But that was then and this is now
Wow, leave me alone-one-one
Oh, why can't you just leave me alone-one-one?
Why can't you just leave me alone?

Leave me alone
Ooh, leave me alone
Ooh, leave me alone
Why can't you just leave me alone?
Leave me alone
Ooh, leave me alone
Ooh, leave me alone
Why can't you just leave me alone?
