

The Hill, The View & The Lights

Cajun Dance Party

High up in the sky
I will go flying
The lights that catch my eye
They keep me flying

High up in the sky
Romance fills my eyes
The tears that come alive
They keep me flying

High up in the sky
Sunlight burns my eyes,
But I'll keep on breathing,
But I'll keep on flying

(High up in the sky,
I will go flying,
I will fly high,
I will fly high)

Wishing I could take you here to feel the same feelings
Understand my thoughts about the sun,
About the lights,
About the way you can try to share my lights and frights,
Walking up the hill
I feel the gritty city shadow urging me on
Urging me on
Walking up the hill
Walking up the hill
Urging me on
Urging me on
I've forced myself to see further
Than the clouds would let see more clearly
The horizon light in the way
In the way
Restricted romance in the way
In the way
But I am walking up
Climbing to the top
Flying to the hill, the view and the lights
The hill, the view and the lights

High up in the sky
In the colourful life
My light will reappear
When they keep it on
To hear my songs
