

Afraid To Care

Cal Smith

Here I go again, left standing at my door
I'm so afraid to take a chance as I've been hurt before
It's not that I can't love you, my life, I'd like to share
But my heart's been broken so many times, it's just afraid to care

Maybe time will ease the pain
And someday, I can love again
My heart can't stand a new affair
It's loved and lost so many times, it's just afraid to care

Maybe time will ease the pain
And someday, I can love again
My heart can't stand a new affair
It's loved and lost so many times, it's just afraid to care
It's loved and lost so many times, it's just afraid to care
