

I Found Someone On My Own

Cal Smith

I got up this morning and while I was having my coffee
My woman came in and sat down by my side
With tears in her eyes she said I have a confession to make
And I said woman speak what's on your mind

You know those lonely nights when you left me all alone
Oh my new love would call and comfort me on the telephone
And I said darling if that's the way it's got to be Oh sweet woman don't you worry about me

She said I found somebody new to take you're place
I said don't feel so all alone I found someone of my own

I got up from the table I reached down and wiped the tears from her face
I put out my cigarette turned and walked away

She said I found somebody new to take you're place
I said don't feel so all alone I found someone of my own
She said I found somebody new to take you're place
I said don't feel so all alone I found someone of my own
