If the crew ain't right then the ship gon' sink (Then the ship gon' sink)
And a nigga ain't right from the shit I seen (From the shit I seen, yeah)
Wanna talk about love, bitch, what you mean? (Bitch what you mean, yeah?)
Fell in love with this mud, pour up, I drink

'Cause I've been to war, barbarian (Barbarian)
These niggas talkin', irrelevant (Irrelevant)
My pockets fatter than elephant (They are)
I fell in love with the medicine
I'm sick in the head, I need medicine
Can you tell me why your shooters hesitant?
Say you come from that block, you never been
I never fold, I never bend, yeah

Bitches better watch they back
You know I grip on this MAC
And I heard what you say
We spot a nigga, it's that
And I point it at his head
I bet his shit it go splat, hey
I put my boys on the map, hey
I come from cookin' the crack, hey
Boy you better not try to run, you can get shot in your back, hey
I fell in love with the mud, you know it keep me relax, hey
She wanna talk about love, I don't wanna hear none of that
If I said it won't take the shit back
If she left me, ain't no comin' back
And I'm still on 147, I ain't changin' up, hey
Say they want smoke with us, he smokin' angel dust
And these bitches be so damn weird, niggas be strange as fuck
Niggas can't bang with us, niggas can't hang with us, hey
Gotta tie my shoelaces, bitch I ain't trippin'
Since a shorty, I knew I was different, hey
Me and you ain't the same, and they can tell the difference
Gotta stay focused, bitch, I'm on a mission
