

Ride Out

CalBoy

Ayy, fuck them niggas, we gonna ride out
I had to put my bitch in timeout
These niggas talkin', what they lyin' 'bout
I think he mad cause I'm iced out
Uh, how he a killer? He ain't killed one
How you a dealer? You ain't deal none
They broke as fuck, you niggas owe him
Oh that's Cap Gold, but you don't know him

My niggas really in the trap, tryna flip a pack
I know you can't feel my heart, but you can feel these raps
They gave my dog five years, and he can't get it back
And yeah, its gonna be hard, just take it to the neck
I know my life getting tough, but I never question God
Because he saved my life, and got me out that car
So I'ma stick to the g-code, Cap Gold you know
Only new hoe, cause old hoes, I can't do those
I was down bad on my dick, sleeping on the couch
I had my back against the wall, I had to find a route
I talked to God at night, he told me "Cap your time is now"
I cried so many nights, my eyes, I wanna take em out

Ayy, fuck them niggas, we gonna ride out
I had to put my bitch in timeout
These niggas talkin', what they lyin' 'bout
I think he mad cause I'm iced out
Uh, how he a killer? He ain't killed one
How you a dealer? You ain't deal none
They broke as fuck, you niggas owe him
Oh that's Cap Gold, but you don't know him

We was trapping on a daily baby, had to find that paper route
Time and time again I risked my life, I found a safer route
Told my dog I loved him then he crossed me, had to take him out
And I don't fuck with these bitches, give an inch the probably take a mile
Battling myself, I take these drugs, oh yeah I'm fading out
I remember days was heating up, oh yeah I'm blazing now
Sticks and stones can break my bones, but not my soul, no breaking down
Heard she surprised cuz I was broke as fuck, now I'm out that basement how Bitch I ain't going for nothing, I made them funds right out that vacant house
Been talked like the boss, I hope you picked up what I'm laying down
All my life I stayed ten toes, forever staying down
And yeah we put them drums on our sticks, but we don't play around
Mama said don't trust em, they not for you
Bitch don't say your mine cuz I won't spoil you
Bitch don't tell me lies and say you loyal
How you never satisfied? Hoe I need more too
Ayy fuck them niggas, we gon ride out, can't call a time out
Heard he want to know what my slime bout, what he gon find out
Shawty know that she ain't mine now, she just been trying out
My brodie dead, that's what we slidin bout, might blow your mind out

We gonna ride out
I had to put my bitch in timeout
These niggas talkin', what they lyin' 'bout
I think he mad cause I'm iced out

Uh, how he a killer? He ain't killed one
How you a dealer? You ain't deal none
They broke as fuck, you niggas owe him
Oh that's Cap Gold, but you don't know him
