

Accountable

Caleb Gordon

So for real, so for real
Forbidden fruit fallen from the tree
Is it really benefiting me?
We gon' rock ang roll-
Bruh, the song over, bruh
Nah, we just gettin' started (Let's go)
So for real, so for real
Yeah, yeah
So for real
Ha, We don't need a new hook, ain't it? Haha
Sheesh, switch it up, I got som'n to say

Aye, Aye
One thing I'm learnin' 'bout life
Everything come with a price, aye
That's why I'm takin' a chance
That's why I'm rollin' the dice
Gotta be different
You only actin' holy in the pews
That's why they look at us and be confused
You gotta tell me what side you on
Can't even tell
You actin' funny like Kenan and Kel
You in and out, just keep it real
Lord, I'm sorry for claiming your name
When ain't nothing changed inside of me
Even the blind can see
You don't really ride for me
Switchin' it up when you around so and so
If you gon' go, then go
Hit the road, Jack
Don't come back no mo'
Can't judge the ones who don't know
But if you saved, I'ma let you know
We made a decision to switch up the way we was livin'
Not saying you perfect
'Cause nobody perfect
But we on a mission
He told you yo' purpose (Caleb, you trippin')

I'm trippin', yup
Just tryna make sure you get it
If you feel like you goin' in circles, no vision
Don't wanna be a hypocritical christian
This ain't for you, then you don't gotta listen
This for my brothers and sisters in Christ
How we gon' change the world
If we can't work together?
Don't read the word together?
No wonder we so weak
Enemy tryna make sure we don't speak
Tryna isolate us for the whole week (Du, du, du du)
Killin' us slowly
To the point that we don't seek the Lord anymore
Now we need Him more than before
(Is he-Is he judging me? Who do you think you are, Jesus?)

I ain't judgin', I'm just holdin' you accountable
'Xpecting you to do the same for me
(Do the same, do the same, do the same)
I'm just holdin' you accountable
'Xpecting you to do the same for me
(Do the same, do the same, do the same)

I can have anything I want
I can have anything I need
Forbidden fruit fallen from the tree
Is it benefiting me?
We gon' rock and roll with the king
The earth can't be the same when I leave
We gon' have to change what it mean
To really have faith and believe
It can't just be a phrase that we speak
Let's walk it out and show 'em who we be
Who we be, show 'em who we be! (Yeah, you know!)
Who we be, show 'em who we be! (Yeah, you know!)
Who we be, show 'em who we be! (Yeah, you know!)
Who we be, show 'em who we be! (Yeah, you know!)
Who we be, show 'em who we be! (Yeah, you know!)
Who we be, show 'em who we be! (Yeah, you know!)
Who we be, show 'em who we be!

Child of the One who set me free (Who is He?)
He the author and creator
Prince of peace (Who we be?)
Ambassador, dominion over everything
He say we royalty
So don't forget you kings and queens (Ahu!)
