

Already Written, Pt. 1

Caleb Gordon

Yeah
Story was already written
I am just here to fulfill it
I am not chasin' the digits (Where'd you find this?)
Wah gwaan, Dawgin?

Yeah
Story was already written
I am just here to fulfill it
I am not chasin' the digits
I am not chasin' the feeling
I got no time to be chillin'
Tellin' my homies they worth more than gold
Even before they put permanent grill in
I had to go, I needed healing
You do me wrong, quick to forgive it
Can't keep that hate in my heart
I kill it dead from the start

I kill it dead from the start
Can't keep that hate in my heart
Yeah, yeah
Can't let it tear it me apart
Yeah, yeah
I can't let it tear me apart
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm 'bout to rock, I'm 'bout to roll
Like I'm doing laundry, I cannot fold
I'm on an assignment, protecting my soul
Not aligned with the mission, you know I gotta let go
Got the vision like an eagle watchin' out for the crows
Woah, woah, woah
Hol' up, 2020 gon' be a breeze-
Wait, no, not the way I thought it was
Anyways, switch it up
2019, toes in
Now I'm going waist deep
But still ain't even deep enough
I don't know e'rything
If I don't, look it up
I ain't read at all
I was in a reading class
I was feenin' for the laughs
This real life, ain't nobody teachin' that
Well, might as well go fishin'
Used to be a Sunday Christian
Then, I spent the whole week trippin'
Wonderin' why the Word wasn't hittin'
I was slump, slump, slump
Hit the snooze way too long
Graduated and the whole world shifted
Homies say I'm way too different
Feelin' like a weight's been lifted off me
Now I'm ascendin' and seeking his peace
Know I got questions, got questions, got questions
You wrote this?

Yeah
Story was already written
I am just here to fulfill it
I am not chasin' the digits
I am not chasin' the feeling
I got no time to be chillin'
Tellin' my homies they worth more than gold
Even before they put permanent grill in
I had to go, I needed healing
You do me wrong, quick to forgive it
Can't keep that hate in my heart
I kill it dead from the start
