Caleb Gordon

Caleb, is this what Eden sounds like?
Aye, 2000 EST

Ambassador

Jesus took the wheel while I'm ridin' in the passenger
If they actin' up
I ain't worried 'bout a thing, know the King gon' back me up
Ambassador, tell me, is it accurate?
Nah, we ain't lackin' nothin'
Ready to go like we packin' somethin'
I'm on the road, let 'em know what's happenin'

Whole city on the back of us
Knock me down, we come back like Lazarus
Uh, you ain't seen the last of us
We buildin' up like it's Tetris
Now the world gettin' treacherous
The hate, lust, and lies, you can see the evidence
But the One never lettin' up
Prayin' over [?] see heaven come to earth
They like, "Why you so passionate?
I mean, it really isn't addin' up"
My whole life, I done capped enough
Till I found out who the Captain was

Ambassador

Jesus took the wheel while I'm ridin' in the passenger
If they actin' up (if they actin', they actin' up)
I ain't worried 'bout a thing, know the King gon' back me up (back me up)
Ambassador, tell me, is it accurate?
Nah, we ain't lackin' nothin'
Ready to go like we packin' somethin'
I'm on the road, let 'em know what's happenin'

Aye, I'm from the Garden, no Madison
When she see me, she like, "You know you a Daddy's son"
That G, O, D, no, I don't gotta brag for nothin'
When you rollin' with the King, He do the boastin'
Holy Spirit on my side
If it's a pro'lem, I ain't worried, let my angels slide
I got homies that gifted, but they put that to the side
It's like a bird havin' wings, but he don't wanna fly-y-y-y
I'm only here to let Yo' kingdom come
I'm only here to let Yo' will be done
So I let Yo' Word build me up
And let the Holy Spirit fill me up
