

Armor Of God

Caleb Gordon

Yeah, easy
Yeah, O-C-O-E-E
Ayy, say it correctly (Okay)
A'ight, a'ight (Hehe)
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

God tell me to go and I'm ready
Walking in faith while I'm dodgin' a Jeze
Get me lit and I don't need the Henny
Givin' it out 'cause y'know we got plenty
In the camp, we rock Demi
No, I'm not talkin' Lovato
I'm on my Vato, eatin' the beat like it's Denny's
Whenever we takin' a break, we fast
I never dwell on the past
Today is a gift, so that's why we call it the present
Chillin' in Eden, I chill in his presence
He knew me way 'fore I uttered a sentence
While I'm on this Earth, I'm a tenant
Y'know this body is rented, I treat it just like a temple
Can't just let anyone get in, get in
Haha (Grr)

Yeah, easy
G-O-D spittin' the word way before rap was invented
I be protectin' my mental, devil be cappin', I dead it
He gotta exit, he gotta, he gotta
He gotta (he gotta), he gotta (he gotta), go (Grr)
He gotta (he gotta), he gotta (he gotta), he gotta (he gotta)
Go (Go), go, go (Go), go (He gotta go), he gotta go
I do not care what your friends say
Healin' my people with words like Dende (Dende)
You know we ball like a ten-day
See through the enemy's moves, I got trey
I'm the hottest of the decade (Decade)
Teach a quick move like a chess-play (Chess-play)
Righteousness all in my breastplate

I got the armor of God on me (Grr)
I got the armor of God on me (Armor of God on me)
Yeah, I got the-
I got the armor of God on me (Armor of God on me)
Yeah, I got the armor of God on me

I got the light on my chest, uh
No, I am not Tony
Tony? Tony
Who's Tony? Stark (Yeah)
This is a marathon, homie
You won't see the end, if you never start (Start)
The enemy tryna knock me out my race
Like it was Mario Kart (Kart)
I feel like Noah in the ark (Yeah)
They think I'm crazy 'til it start (What?)
Rainin', look how they mind start changing
When I started rappin' 'bout God, they didn't think I would make it
Look how He takin' me places
Yeah, no horse, but we off to the races

Keep it simple, we keepin' it basic
Every battle, know I gotta face it
Face it? Face it
Yeah, ready, yeah

'Cause I got the armor of God on me
Yeah, yeah
I got the armor of God on me (Armor of God)
Yeah, yeah
I got the armor of God on me (Armor of God)

Walk with the Lion of Judah
No, this ain't Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrobe (No)
You see me dripped in my war clothes (You see me)
Fresh like I hopped out award shows (Yeah)
Slice it up, I got a sword flow
I don't talk it, I do it like Morse Code (Yeah)
Everything I say is truth, I got it from the source, though
I ain't worried 'bout a door closed (Nah)
I know He gon' open another one (Yeah)
And another one (And another one)
And another one (And another one)
And another one (And another one)
And another one (And another one)
Easy (Easy), we chill
I stopped the hoopin' and hopped in the booth
Somehow I made it to the league, still (Yeah)
Like, "How you do that?" (How you do that?)

'Cause I got the armor of God on me (Yeah)
I got the sword of the spirit
I got the armor of God on me
I got the shield of faith
I got the armor of God on me
I got the sword of the spirit
I got the armor of God on me (Yeah)
I got the shield of faith
I got the armor of God on me
