Caleb Gordon

Ayy, 2000, E-S-T
O-C-O-E-E

I'm tryna take it higher than I ever been
They like, "Caleb, how you mix the music with the medicine?"
Light on me, Thomas Edison
You don't know if you believe, look at my life, it's evidence
Look at my life, it's evidence
Kick the demons out, no, you can't stay up in my residence
Jesus knockin' at the door, so I had let Him in Food for my soul, I don't gotta live by bread again
It's that 66, that Old and New Testament
Jesus, He the King, that's very different from a president
If You said it, we believe it
We on go, that's how we steppin' in
In Yo' Word, that's the law, that's the code
That's what we followin'

No turnin' back, I'm fallin' in
Hol' on, I'm fallin' in
Don't do it for the cheese like I'm lactose-intolerant
Know You got what I need
When they hunched, ca-call 'em in
On the solid Rock I stand, I say that with confidence
Come and get this on the cam, better record all of this

I'm tryna take it higher than I ever been

In Yo' Word, that's the law, that's the code
That's what we followin'

Yeah, we steppin' like the military
Enemy be throwin' shots but we know that he's really scary
They say you get the sweetest juice from the darkest berry
But take heed what you eat or your life gon' be short like February
No, this ain't a game, this ain't no Tom and Jerry
Movin' fast but you walkin' with a mask, Jim Carrey
You might crash, get gone in a flash like you Allen Barry
Barry Allen, I was movin' late night just like Jimmy Fallon
I was only tryna get the green just like a chicken salad
I was leanin', Mike and Billy Jeanin' 'til You gave me balance
I was heathen 'til You started speakin', Your words like ballad
Just like Adele, my burdens easy on me
I can tell, You broke the chains, now, I'm free

I'm tryna take it higher than I ever been
They like, "Caleb, how you mix the music with the medicine?"
