

Fearfully Wonderfully Made

Caleb Gordon

Aye, 2000 E-S-T

Don't you know that you a star
Even 'fore they say you are?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know that you a star
Even 'fore they say you are?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know that you a star
Even 'fore they say you are?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know that you a star?
You are

Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made (yeah-yeah)
Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made (yeah-yeah)
Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made (You are)
Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made (yeah)

How can their words stick like glue
When they ain't create you?
Listen to the One who made you
You a one of one
Can't replace you
Don't let them tell you who you are

You are a Child of the King
You know that (know that)
Don't move like royalty
You gotta show that (show that)
You don't gotta show everyone what's in your bag, mmm-hmm
Yeah, she know that, already seen
Way before He stepped on the scene
Nah, she don't gotta throw-back
She don't need him in the sheets
To boost her self-esteem
Nah, The Spirit control that
She don't cast pearls before swine
She don't be wastin' her time
She don't care how you look
On the outside
How is your spirit inside?
If you and G-O-D not aligned
Then you not on her mind

When you know you five-star
You don't gotta settle
You don't gotta compromise (For real)
It's dangerous to move how you feel
When you know you need time to heal
Let the Lord show you what's real
He knows you better
Than you know yourself

When they tellin' lies in your ear
Let this be the last thing you hear

How can their words stick like glue
When they ain't create you?
Listen to the one who made you
You a one of one
Can't replace you
Don't let them tell you who you are

Don't you know that you a star
Even 'fore they say you are?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know that you a star
Even 'fore they say you are?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know that you a star
Even 'fore they say you are?
Yeah, yeah
Don't you know that you a star?
You are

Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made (yeah-yeah)
Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made (yeah-yeah)
Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made (yeah-yeah)
Beautiful, wonderful
Fearfully, wonderfully made
You are
