I see through a different lens
I don't wanna fall and live a life of sin again
I don't wanna get revenge
I just wanna love like You and love again, again

Should've been right wit' You, but I didn't notice
I wanted a life wit' You, but I didn't show it
I wanted to fly wit' You, but I didn't notice
I tried to carry the weight on my own

I need You to hold it down, yeah, yeah
I awoke when You looked my way
I am shook when You look my way
I know that You don't play around
You see when I see no way
You go when I see no way
I don't know how I made it out

Arms open, You brought me in
And You never lose Your dub, like win
My emotion, it move like wind
Pick up the truth and the light dim
Me a never let Luci win
We a never let Luci-

I know it's another way
I don't wanna fall and make the same mistakes, mistakes
I know when to take a break
I know I can't live at everybody's pace, pace

Should've been right wit' You, but I didn't notice
I wanted a life wit' You, but I didn't show it
I wanted to fly wit' You, but I didn't notice
I tried to carry the weight on my own

I need You to hold it down, yeah, yeah
I awoke when You looked my way
I am shook when You look my way
I know that You don't play around
You see when I see no way
You go when I see no way
I don't know how I made it out
I need You to hold it down
I awoke when You looked my way
I am shook when You look my way
I know that You don't play around
You see when I see no way
You go when I see no way
I don't know how I made it out

Arms open, You brought me in
And You never lose Your dub, like win
My emotion, it move like wind
Pick up the truth and the light get dim

Me a never let Luci win
We a never let Luci-
