

Rewrite History

Caleb Gordon

Yeah, O-C-O-E-E
Ayy, 2000 E-S-T
Let's go
Yeah, uh (Uh huh)

We 'bout to rewrite the family history
We goin' up like the Statue of Liberty
Uh, yeah, uh huh
We 'bout to rewrite the family history
We goin' up like the Statue of Liberty
We 'bout to rewrite the wrongs
Father forgive 'em, 'cause they didn't know what they did (Sure they did)
They was just tryin' to live
They was just tryin' to provide for they kids (They kids)
Enemy thought that the drama I got in my life That I wouldn't forgive (Forgive)
But hatin' on folks is like drinkin' the poison and wishin' they die in the end (The end)
But really you killin' yourself (You is)
But really you hurtin' your wealth (For real)
I'd rather go buy me a new deck of cards
Judgin' by the hand I was dealt [babbling]
I learned if you really wanna see change
You gotta go do it yourself (Let's go)
I'd rather go play in the game than sit on the side like everyone else (I can't)

It's so many secrets, it's so many lies
I coulda just blamed 'em all, huh
It's so many times I tried to hide
I shoulda just made the call (The call)
Soon as you think that you standin' on pride that's when you prone to fall (Fall)
Soon as you think you in touch, but trust me
Life gon' humble us all (For real)
Soon as you think it's a touchdown
Trust me that's when you fumble the ball (The ball)
We not just followin' God for outcomes
We just be trustin' it all (It all)
That's what I told 'em (I told 'em)

We 'bout to rewrite the family history
We goin' up like the Statue of Liberty
Uh, yeah, [babbling], ayy
We 'bout to rewrite the family history
We goin' up like the Statue of Liberty
We 'bout to rewrite the wrongs
Father forgive 'em, 'cause they didn't know what they did
They was just tryin' to live
They was just tryin' to provide for they kids (They was)
Enemy thought that the drama I got in my life That I wouldn't forgive
But hatin' on folks is like drinkin' the poison and wishin' they die in the end

Whether we win or whether we lose
We still gon' stand ten toes (Ten toes)
You could be standin' on Everest highs

Still gon' have some lows (Some lows)
You could have all you want in life
And one day it's gon' go (It's gone)
You ain't see what happened to Job? (Huh?)
I pray it don't go that low (I pray)
I'ma still pray my God, even though nobody pull up to my show
Cause back then I was rappin' for show
I was quick to let all that go (It's gone)
I was building up habits for years
I ain't gon' lie, that chain was slow (Too slow)
Get back good, but once you up, you up fasho
We up
That's why I told 'em (I thought I told ya)

We 'bout to rewrite the family history
We goin' up like the Statue of Liberty
Uh, yeah, ayy
We 'bout to rewrite the family history
We goin' up like the Statue of Liberty (Up)
We 'bout to rewrite the wrongs
Father forgive 'em, 'cause they didn't know what they did
They was just tryin' to live
They was just tryin' to provide for they kids (They kids)
Enemy thought that the drama I got in my life That I wouldn't forgive (Forgive)
But hatin' on folks is like drinkin' the poison and wishin' they die in the end (The end)
But really you killin' yourself (You is)
But really you hurtin' your wealth (For real)
I'd rather go buy me a new deck of cards
Judgin' by the hand I was dealt (I am)
I learned if you really wanna see change
You gotta go do it yourself (I will)
I'd rather go play in the game than sit on the side like everyone else (I'm gone)
