

Ride Til The End

Caleb Gordon

Ayy, 2000, E-S-T
Yeah, O-C-O-E-E
(Yeah, yeah)

If you ain't ever seen the bottom, how could you stand on ten? (On ten)
I don't need Louis V shades on to see life through Your lens (Your lens)
When everybody left, You stayed by me all the way to the end
When everybody else tried to break my heart, You won't bend (Won't bend)
When the wheels fall off, then you find out who gon' ride 'til the end (Skrrt)
Have you ever said a prayer to the Lord that was so deep, you didn't wanna s end? (Skrrt)
When I walk with the Holy Spirit, it's like puttin' my toes in the sand (Toe s in the sand)
I went back to the garden, had to find out who I am (Huh, huh)

If you don't know the play, you can't follow it (Yeah)
I need all of Your wisdom like Solomon (Yeah)
You show me where to go when the drama hits
Help me see through the real and the counterfeit
When You give me Your word, can I count on it? (Count on it, can I count on it?)
When You give me Your word, can I count on it? (Count on it)
Will You still show me love if I'm out of it?

If you ain't ever seen the bottom, how could you stand on ten? (On ten)
I don't need Louis V shades on to see life through Your lens (Your lens)
When everybody left, You stayed by me all the way to the end
When everybody else tried to break my heart, You won't bend (Won't bend)
When the wheels fall off, then you find out who gon' ride 'til the end (Who gon' ride)
Find out who gon' ride 'til the end (Who gon' ride)
When the wheels fall off, then you find out who gon' ride 'til the end (Who gon' ride)
Find out who gon' ride 'til the end

Ayy, gotta swerve on the devil, that's definite
Ain't no life in the tongue, there's just death in it
If he talk in my ear, I go deaf in it
Pray to Yahweh, I rest in His residence
She ain't loyal, she go where the exit is
But I won't share my ex to this
I just escape like the Exodus, dog
Ain't no more messages, dog
I got a choice, you can stay through the tears when I fall
'Cause that's who I'm standin' by
In the Spirit, I'm amplified
I can't trust you if you gotta see through a third eye
Why would I add an eye? I get my vision from Adonai
Imagine I've learned a sermon
Swervin' burned the serpent with discernment
Purge a person with the Word on purpose
I know He purchased my burdens, yeah

If you ain't ever seen the bottom how could you stand on ten?
I don't need Louis V shades on to see life through Your lens
When everybody left, You stayed by me all the way to the end

When everybody else tried to break my heart, You won't bend
When the wheels fall off then, you find out who gon' ride 'til the end (Skrrt)
Have you ever said a prayer to the Lord that was so deep you didn't wanna send? (Skrrrt)
When I walk with the Holy Spirit, it's like puttin' my toes in the sand (Toes in the sand)
I went back to the garden, had to find out who I am
