Caleb Gordon

You know, that song remind me of a song I used to listen to back then, like that
That's a good one right there Caleb
It sound like, it's like fire
It's shut up in my bones
It's like fire
It's shut up in my bones
Comin' from the spirit right there Caleb
You don't know nothin' 'bout that
Don't know nothin' 'bout
But, but it, but it don't, it don't sound like that though
It's not even close
Like, they're two different son-
Ok, so we gon' keep it goin' y'all
