

War

Caleb Gordon

Yeah

Ayy, 2000, E-S-T

That's that O-C-O-E-E (War)

(Yeah!)

It's a war in the city, it's a war outside
Luci spread lies, it's a war in the mind
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now

In the same world, we don't fight the same way
I don't need the Glock, nah, I don't need the K
But I got a weapon that'll make you say Grace
Power of the Lord, make 'em do the Olay
Luci mad that we went the right way
Went and got the logos, hit the whole place
Tried to move the goalpost, we kickin' out hate
Kickin' out pride, we kickin' out the pain like Messi
He can't check me
Lucy try to be friendly, we not besties
He tried to keep me on ice, that's too sketchy
'Till I tapped in with Christ, now I'm Wayne Gretzky

Can't believe I thought so many times I was done
But you the type to leave the 99 for the one
Who knew all I needed was a sign from the Son?
Who knew all I needed was a sign, gotta tell 'em

It's a war in the city, it's a war outside
Lucy spread lies, it's a war in the mind
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now
It's a war in the city, it's a war outside
Lucy spread lies, it's a war in the mind
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now

It's a war, yeah
It's a war, yeah
It's a war, yeah
It's a war, yeah

That's what I had to tell my sister and my brother
Devil, he be creepin' undercover
He just want them to go fight each other
Instead, I'm fighting him
I can't let the old me win
Lucy want me fallin' in his sin
So I'm in a gym
Took the heart away like Tim
Put my heart away, not again
Watch me cut the habits that I had for 20 years off
Got a God to gaze, watching what I'm letting in Watching what I listen to, watching what I see
I don't want to hear, dawg, if he ain't plan to see
Tryna see the fruit, cutting out the weeds
I live a good life on Earth, we believe

Can't believe I thought so many times I was done
But you the type to leave the 99 for the one
Who knew all I needed was a sign from the Son?
Who knew all I needed was a sign, gotta tell 'em

It's a war in the city, it's a war outside
Luci spread lies, it's a war in the mind
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now
It's a war in the city, it's a war outside
Luci spread lies, it's a war in the mind
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now
Let Your Kingdom Come, let it fall right now

It's a war, yeah
It's a war, yeah
It's a war, yeah (It's a war outside)
It's a war, yeah (It's a war outside)
