

How Did You Know?

Caleb Hearn

You were 22
Buying her a diamond
Working 9 to 5 and overtime, paying off college
Taking me to school
You always found the time and
You were baseball coach, and my ride home
You taught me how to drive and

You made it all look so easy

How did you know?
When it's time to say you love her
How did you know?
When to pack up and start over
How did you know when to settle down
All on your own, it was figured out
How did you know
How did you know

Now I'm 23
She's been staying over
When we're eye to eye, I see my life, I feel a little older
And I've wondered when I'd see the day
The light turns on, clicks into place
And I'd know everything you knew at your age

How did you know?
When it's time to say you love her
How did you know?
When to pack up and start over
How did you know when to settle down
All on your own, it was figured out
How did you know
How did you know
Cause I'm old enough to know
That I don't have forever
And there might not be a better time to ask
How did you know?

When it's time to say you love her
How did you know?
When to pack up and start over
How did you know when to settle down
All on your own, it was figured out
How did you know
How did you know
