

No Lie

Caleb Hearn

No lie
It's time
I'm ready to realize
Maybe
It's too much
Right now maybe
No lie
It's time to move on
I'm ready right
No lie
It's too much
I'm ready, yeah

I'm moving away
Changing the game
I'm raising the stakes
Ain't no complaints
I needed a change
Hop on a plane
All in my brain
It's all in my veins

You would think I'd stay
With all I had on my plate
But they don't see what's at stake
Maybe I'm too crazy
I ain't risking much lately
I ain't risking much lately
35 in a golden state
Man, I ain't tryna be KD

No lie
It's time to move on
I'm ready right
No lie
It's too much
I'm ready, yeah

They say I ain't ready so I had to get my change up
Packed up on the road a couple dollars and a paystub
Swerving through the lane don't catch the contact when I layup
I been chasing M y'all chasing z's that's why I stay up

Stay up
That's why I stay up
Head above the clouds, I'm never down I'm staying way up
I'm way up
You cannot faze us
Did this on my own I'm saying thank you to the fake love

No lie
It's time to move on
I'm ready right
No lie
It's too much
I'm ready, yeah

No lie
It's time to move on
I'm ready right
No lie
It's too much
I'm ready
