

Dear Suffering

Caliban

My world is rotten to the roots
Forever doomed, forgotten, and abused
Find hell at the bottom of the truth
My life is a goddamned wound

I was thrown into this world, why can't I go back?
Tared and feathered, I can only accept
I'm lost in this world, my fate, my cross
We're all fallen, it's the world of the lost

Dear suffering, be my friend again
Suffer well, my friend, we'll burn forever
We'll burn, burn, burn forever
We'll burn, burn, burn forever

The lost and abandoned, anti-anthem
When life's like a wound, fucking death is a blessing
Down past the bottom, where the devil won't go
Not forgiven but forgotten, hit me with a deathblow

Hit me with a deathblow

I was thrown into this world, out of love, into hate
Before I'll be buried under its weight
I'm lost in this world, my fate, my cross
We're all fallen, it's the world of the lost

Dear suffering, be my friend again
Suffer well, my friend, we'll burn forever
We'll burn, burn, burn forever
We'll burn, burn, burn forever

When I fall into pieces
Endless suffering

(Endless suffering)
