

Echoes

Caliban

Let them burn

There is darkness inside of me
That reflects in waves
What I used to be
Without all the shame
I hate the way I feel today
Numb, torn apart and hollow
I'm trapped in the mirrors truth
A reflection hard to swallow

Will you reach out
Will you answer me

Burn all my secrets
While I'm dying for you
In the shadows
Can you see them too
The less I try the more I break
There's a spiral in my head
Lost in the echoes
Lost in the echoes

Noone knows my secrets
Noone knows the truth
Every lie will always
Lead right back to you
I'm stuck in this maze you built for me
Your lies let me walk in circles
Just back and forth in burning chains

Burn all my secrets
While I'm dying for you
In the shadows
Can you see them too
The less I try the more I break
There's a spiral in my head
Lost in the echoes
Lost in the echoes

Let them burn
Let them burn

It's like a tidal wave
Pulling and dragging me down
Lost in the echoes
Lost in the echoes

It's like a tidal wave
Pulling and dragging me down
Lost in the echoes
Lost in the echoes

Burn all my secrets
While I'm dying for you
In the shadows

The less I try the more I break
Lost in the echoes

Every night and day I ask myself
Will you reach out to me or stay away
Lost in the the echoes - lost in space
There's a spiral in my head
Lost in the echoes

Let them burn
Let them burn
