

Guilt Trip

Caliban

Your hell is my destiny
I will not bow to you
Say hello to tragedy
You are my enemy

Fallen skies and fallen dreams
All in my mind, it's all in me
I'm not a victim, I'm just myself
I'm trippin' on your guilt 15 fucking years now

If I live or if I die
The guilt remains inside

Forever chained to the shadows
Hunted by the blame
It's like poison in my veins
And when the vultures scream my name
Your hell is my destiny

Your hell is my destiny
I will not bow to you
Say hello to tragedy
You are my enemy

I faced my demons
Sent them through the gates of hell
I've learned my lesson
You taught me all too well
The time has come to put you down
I'm trippin' on your guilt 15 fucking years now

Guilt trip!
Guilt trip!

If I live or if I die
The guilt remains inside

Forever chained to the shadows
Hunted by the blame
It's like poison in my veins
And when the vultures scream my name
Your hell is my destiny

Your hell is my destiny
I will not bow to you
Say hello to tragedy
You are my enemy

After all you put me through
Every time I think of you - violence!

Guilt trip!
