

Solace in Suffer

Caliban

I feel the pain crawling under my skin
I feel the blame but I cannot feel the sin
Numb to the hollow, drown in despair
I'm reaching out for comfort

I nail myself to the cross I bear
Why am I doing this? I'm gasping for air
To feel alive, I embrace my fall
In the shadows, I surrender

Finding solace in suffer
When will we see the end?
Caught in the undertow
Finding comfort in darkness
Just to feel again
Solace in suffer

All these scars burning deep in my soul
Like a revolver spinning out of control
Let the bullets fire, let the sparks ignite
While I stand in line of the ricochet

Piercing myself to the cross I bear
Why am I doing this? It's all unfair
The weight of this world, it's pulling me down
For saving my heart I will give you my crown

Finding solace in suffer
When will we see the end?
Caught in the undertow
Finding comfort in darkness
Just to feel again
Solace in suffer
