

It's cutting deep
Right to the core
Sharp and unforgiving
Words are like swords

Why don't we have a tongue of glass
When just one word could take your fucking breath
Why don't we have a tongue of glass
When even silence could bring you death!?

Silence is a lie
When you have something to say
The world's not black and white
Choke on your lies - choke on your lies
Silence is a lie, a lie

You dare to hurt - you dare to harm
Your words won't get into my heart
Your lies are cheap, your tongue is split
Choke on your lies you fucking hypocrite
Choke on your lies - choke on your lies
Choke on your lies you fucking hypocrite

Hate, hate spit in your face
Spit, spit, spit it out!
Spit it out!
Spit, spit, spit it out!
Spit it out!

Silence is a lie
When you have something to say
The world's not black and white
Choke on your lies - choke on your lies
Silence is a lie

A lie
When you have something to say
Silence is a lie
When you have something to say

Silence is a lie
When you have something to say
The world's not black and white
Choke on your lies - choke on your lies
Silence is a lie, a lie

Spit it out!
