

This Is War

Caliban

This is war!

Violence!
The weapon of the weak!
Resistance!
A thousand hearts will bleed!

Eye for an eye makes you blind in the end
Tooth for a tooth, again and again
Breathing fire dead ember in your lungs
Black faint fills your soul, 'cause every loss makes you numb

War!
The creator of all things
War!
Where it all begins
This is war where everything ends
We're architects of the apocalypse

We're gonna break the silence
This is resistance!
Salvation lies inside us
This is resistance!

You're a coward wrapped in silence, with blood on your hands
You keep your eyes shut, stand up for once
Break your cover and just take the blame
Cause we all will face the season, the season of pain

War!
The creator of all things
War!
Where it all begins
This is war where everything ends
We're architects of the apocalypse

We're gonna break the silence
This is resistance!
Salvation lies inside us
This is resistance!
