

Valkyrie

Caligula's Horse

Wait

You're holding your breath and not your ground, we're here again
With a head full of war, you need it to fill the fight in your hands
So scream at the wall, an echo calm spits back to say
"I will not falter"

Wait

Pacify, survive, time's no symmetry
You rattle the cage but to be still is not to be weak
And you'll never run until you've got the strength to be on unsteady feet

Collide

Breathe with me
Peace is not your enemy
Call for the Valkyrie

It's not impossible
It's just the end of your reach
This is not forever
Valkyrie
The song inside us all
This is it
You and me
We bleed impossible

Oh, it's alright
Can't you see the wonder in the wait?
It's never too late
It's alright now
Gravity is growth, we're not there yet
Can't you see the wonder in the waiting?
It's alright

Choose the way
Unafraid and the wait hasn't even begun
Together we choose the way (We choose the way)
Collide
Choose the way
You can fight for the quiet, the old war
Together we choose the way (We choose the way)
Collide
Choose the way
The alive will strive to sever
Untethered, we choose the way
We're not there yet

Clinging to the weight of the world
To static, the martyr to pride
But you are the war
The spite and its author
You and I were born unready
To stumble, to see
Peace was never your enemy
Go on and call for the Valkyrie

It's not impossible
It's just the end of your reach
This is not forever

Valkyrie
The song inside us all
This is it
You and me
We bleed impossible

Oh, it's alright
Can't you see the wonder in the wait?
It's never too late
It's alright now
Gravity is growth, we're not there yet
Can't you see the wonder in the waiting?
Oh, it's alright
