

After Love

Call Me Karizma

It's sunny, with a chance of hurricane
Dancing in the rain is fun until your pants are getting stained
Standing in the woods without an axe, kind of blade
And you're stuck cutting down my wall
I call, get answering machines
Pick up, I beg you, I'm pleading for a greeting
Sick of being who you're waiting
Then you treat me like you need me
Your voicemail's the only voice or mail you're ever sending You're my poison apple
Try to guard your branch is hardly branding
So take a picture, try to capture us
I think I'm running out of breath
As we're chasing after love

Every time the sun sets under
Darling I can't breathe without you here
My legs are sore
And I don't know where to go
Everyone's insane
Cause everyone's the same
Everyone is chasing after love
But what's after love

The temp is up, lay you down, lights are off
Turn you on, searching for a trace of what they say
Can make the lonely gone
Hope is fear, don't get scared
It's okay to show your tears
All I ask is that this love
Is not some cracked up smoking mirrors
Break me down and build me up
Shake the ground and feel alright
This flame ground is filling up
The kid in me is still abundant
Hold my hand and jump the rary
Just a touch
I feel a rush saying baby we gotta hurry, come on

Every time the sun sets under
Darling I can't breathe without you here
My legs are sore
And I don't know where to go
Everyone's insane
Cause everyone's the same
Everyone is chasing after love
But what's after love

Everyone's insane
Cause everyone's the same, yeah
Everyone's insane
Cause everyone's the same, yeah, yeah
We're chasing after love but what is after love, yeah, yeah
We want to have it all, is all that I know, yeah, yeah

Every time the sun sets under
Darling I can't breathe without you here

My legs are sore
And I don't know where to go
Everyone's insane
Cause everyone's the same
Everyone is chasing after love
But what's after love
