

Hello darling. I'm your knight in rusty armor
Just to warn ya, I get down sometimes
But I know how to climb back up
Back in the summer
I asked for your name then I asked for your number
You said I'm insane, like "damn that's a bummer"
I don't know you, but I'd love to
I would run to the ocean shore
To find that shell you were hoping for
It's crazy you made so
To you is the way I go

Don't be scared to show that you're more in love
I think loving you is euphoria

Hello broken heart, you're fine
I could tell you a thousand times
Different ways and all types of signs
You're the one I think of at night
Your last love cut you deeper
But I'm here trying to cut through speakers
To say "you're great you're a fucking keeper
Boyfriends suck i don't like them either!"
Monster in my closet 'love is scary to be honest'
It's crazy you made me so to you is the way I go

Don't be scared to show that you're more in love
I think loving you is euphoria

I don't care if I'm wasting time
I'd rather waste it on you, waste it on you
I don't care if I'm wasting time
I'd rather waste it on you, waste it on you
We all have lost a person we'd be lost without
But now you're found
But now you're found
Now you're found
But now you're found
Now you're found

Don't be scared to show that you're more in love
I think loving you is euphoria
