Call Me Karizma

I'm calling to say that I'm sorry
I've fucked up one too many times
If you see it's me on your phone when it rings
Would you reply? Would you reply tonight?

I know your voicemail isn't full
Only your mom leaves you messages still
So either you blocked me or just picked up talking
As a new hobby and your phone is all filled

I'm sorry you caught me as I'm sleeping round
Get you a coffee, you're sick and tired how
I'm another copy of every guy
It started out perfect but it was a lie

And I've used all my battery on you
I get why you're mad at me
I do everything I can to fuck this up
Give me one more chance cuz I miss ya

I'm calling to say that I'm sorry
I've fucked up one too many times
If you see it's me on your phone when it rings
Would you reply? Would you reply tonight?

Would you reply to my lies one more time?

Speaking to myself (yeah)
I have nobody else
It's kinda funny ain't it?
I gave you up and now I'm all alone
I fucking hate it

Staring at my cell
Trapped inside my cell
It's kinda funny ain't it?
I really fucking love you
But I'm way too scared to say it

And I've used all my battery on you
I get why you're mad at me
I do everything I can to fuck this up
Give me one more chance cuz I miss ya

I'm calling to say that I'm sorry
I've fucked up one too many times
If you see it's me on your phone when it rings
Would you reply? Would you reply tonight?

Would you reply to my lies one more time?

Please, please pick up the phone
Cuz I've been calling
I've been calling
Please, please I want you to know that I am sorry
Yeah I am sorry
