

Samurai

Call Me Karizma

You murder me, atom bomb
You're on the run, baby, but you cannot hide
You daydream of my homicide
You cut my heart, baby, like a samurai

I have sex to block the rage
You have sex to feel the pain
We're not the same, we're opposites
The pit inside your soul is fucking bottomless, and

Kill me slow, I wanna feel it
Blades so sharp, can cut steel with it
Blood runs red, it's romantic
Left a scar, now I'm branded

You murder me, atom bomb
You're on the run, baby, but you cannot hide
You daydream of my homicide
You cut my heart, baby, like a samurai
You murder me, atom bomb
You're on the run, baby, but you cannot hide
You daydream of my homicide
You cut my heart, baby, like a samurai

You want it, you got it, you hurt me, I'm dying
Look what you started, you love to be violent
Heart on the table, it's turning black
Left me for dead and you ain't turning back

Kill me slow, I wanna feel it
Blades so sharp, can cut steel with it
Blood runs red, it's romantic

You murder me, atom bomb
You're on the run, baby, but you cannot hide
You daydream of my homicide
You cut my heart, baby, like a samurai
You murder me, atom bomb
You're on the run, baby, but you cannot hide
You daydream of my homicide
You cut my heart, baby, like a samurai
(You cut my hear, baby) Like a samurai
(You cut my hear, baby) Like a samurai
