Call Me Loop

There you go again, stop making all that same old noise (old noise)

Thought we'd finally made a change, got girls to stand as tall as boys (mhm)

You be making laws like it's just a game

God forbid a woman gets her own say on her future or is that for you, Sir?

Stop tryna stake a claim, you should know better it's not your choice

But no, you'd rather hush and punish me - than try and act responsibly

Don't you dare pretend that it's for the good

When we all know that control gives you wood

You don't get to be the voice for me

This body ain't your God damn property

They call themselves the "pro-life movement", but what these policies do is they literally kill women.

You blame it on religion, say you want to save a life (a life)
But what about the women who live and breathe in front of your eyes? (oh)

I guess the unborn are nicer to save, never ask for help or money, do they?

But once they're breathing, you lose your feeling.

So won't you let us be, allow some fucking dignity?!

If it were you that had to live with this... maybe you might give a shit

Don't you dare pretend that it's for the good

When we all know that control gives you wood

You don't get to be the voice for me

This body ain't your God damn property

I've had it, I've had enough of you tryna own us

The fuck do you think that you are, in your little boys club?

I've had it, I've had enough of you tryna own us

The fuck do you think that you are, in your little boys club?

Imagine if we turned the tables told you what to do?

Made a tale about a man, a handmaiden that looked like you!

Don't you dare pretend that it's for the good

When we all know that control gives you wood

You don't get to be the voice for me

This body ain't your God damn property

I've had it, I've had enough of you tryna own us

The fuck do you think that you are, in your little boys club?
