

Self Love

Call Me Loop

Ooh, so you can try and tell me
I can't do it by myself
Ooh, but you went and failed me
So watch me find someone else

Cos you know I don't like to be kept waiting
So I'll be on my way, no commiserating

And now I've found myself you know I'm feeling so good
Used to depend on other people more than I ever should
But no one else has treated me as good as I would
So it's time to make a change, make it all about me, or something

Self love!
Yes please
Cos I can do it better than the other fellas ever said that they could
Self love!
Oowee
Cos when you try to hush my power I just sing a little louder at you

Ooh, so just come and see me
See what I've become
Ooh, cos you never believed me
That I could be the one

But since I let go of you dragging me down
I got a new lease of life, got my crown

And now I've found myself you know I'm feeling so good
Used to depend on other people more than I ever should
But no one else has treated me as good as I would

I can sing a little louder now
I can sing a little louder
I can sing a little louder now

I can sing a little louder
I can sing a little louder now
I can sing a little louder
I can sing a little louder now
I can sing a little louder

Self love!
