

Silly Boy

Call Me Loop

You say you're not ready
For a long time thing
Got too hot and heavy
But it's not like I want no ring
Such an over thinker
Yeah, you given yourself spooks
Why you have to fight when you know it's something good

Used to joke about my age
Now who's acting young
So many things I want to say
On the tip of my tongue
Not gonna waste my breath
I'll just let you do you
Stupid to ignore it when you know it's something

So go run a mile
Scared of my smile
You say it's self preservation
You can't fall in love
It's all just to much
Starting to really kind of fully test my patience

Silly silly silly silly boy
What you playing for
Not convinced that I'm your favorite toy
Make me insecure
Time is on my side
I know you'll miss me in a week
Then my silly silly boy will come back begging at my feet

You say it's upsetting
That it has to end
You're open to ideas
But we can't just be friends
Such an silly boy, huh
You'd rather quit then knock on wood
Why you have to throw it when you know it's something good

So go run a mile
Scared of my smile
You say it's self preservation
You can't fall in love
It's all just to much
Starting to really kind of fully test my patience

Silly silly silly silly boy
What you playing for
Not convinced that I'm your favorite toy
Make me insecure
Time is on my side
I know you'll miss me in a week

You're pulling up a wall for the sake
Of it sake of it, mmm
Cutting something short cause you're

Scared of it, mmm

Silly silly silly silly boy
What you playing for
Make me insecure
Time is on my side
I know you'll miss me in a week
Then my silly silly boy will come back begging at my feet
