

Strike

Call Me Loop

Aren't you getting bored?
All this back and forth
The same conversations
But we never get anywhere
Is making me sick
'Cause I'm so exhausted
And it feels like you don't even care

I'm done chasing
You're too complacent
You say you're changed but
Actions speak louder than words

You, you, you, you
You make excuses
But too, too, too late
We know the truth is
That I try and you don't
It's one-sided
I'm ready to strike
I'm ready to lose it

One eye on the screen
You gon' make me scream
One ear in your headphones
So move by what I have to say
If we've hit a wall
Then, baby, that's cool
Let's just hold our hands up
Or let's walk away
'Cause

I'm done chasing
You're too complacent
You say you'll change but
Actions speak louder than words

You, you, you, you
You make excuses
But too, too, too late
We know the truth is
That I try and you don't
It's one-sided
I'm ready to strike
I'm ready to lose it

You, you, you, you
You make excuses
But too, too, too late
We know the truth is
It's one-sided

If your heart's not in

If you're not up to the task
Then why you even staying?
Boy, that's all that I ask
If you've stopped believing
If your head's somewhere else
Well then, I'd rather leave
'Cause I won't sit on your shelf

Oh, you, you, you, you
It's one-sided
I'm ready to strike

You, you, you, you
That I try and you don't
It's one-sided
