

Sanctify

Calla

I had it planned in my mind
I'm coming at you from behind
When your guard is down
When you least expect it

I'm gonna find a way
For me to wallow in your ways
And idolize
From the inside

I'll learn to deal with your kind
Manipulate the divine
And sanctify
Have patience

You'll never know I was there
I'm gonna catch you unaware
I sympathize
Cut you down to size

Merciful cold, cold hands
I feel for you
Simply because you're mine
I need you
I beg you
Forgive you

All for you, by default
For you, all this
It's all, all for you
My fall for you
