

So Far, So What

Calla

"So what", she said
"It's a wonder why you're not dead"
So far, so what

I rejoice
In my dreams I can hear her voice
I'm awake instead
And the voices that I hear drew it in my head

It's all coming to a head
Tell me you win
It's safe for now, I'm in your hands
Tell me you win
It's all coming to a head
Tell me you win
It's safe for now, I'm in your hands

So far, so what?

"Shut up", she said
"You'll say something you might regret"
After all, we're the same
And there's nothing sweeter than when you're to blame
Just the same

So far, so what?
So what?
So what?
So far, for what?
So what?
So what?
So far, for what?
So what?
