

This Better Go As Planned

Calla

Did you mean it?
Did you mean that, maybe
Are you swearing that if all this goes as planned
You'll believe them

Do you swear it?
Do you swear that, maybe
Do you swear on your safety?
Do you promise that if all this goes as planned
You'll believe them

And so you simply swore the days have been reborn
And all that came before, you don't need it
For better or for worse, your word is like a curse
I'm burning in denial, so just leave it

So just leave it
So just leave it
Did you mean it?
Did you mean it?

Will you promise that if all this goes as planned
You'll believe them
And so you simply swore the days that came before are better than reborn
Don't believe it

You're burning in denial
No way to reconcile
This better go as planned and I mean it!

So just leave it
So just leave it
You don't need it
You don't need it
