Calling All Captains

This is everything I have in my heart
And if you're asking what's inside my head
I'm afraid it's too late for that

Tell my momma that I'm sorry cause I'm high again
(I'm higher)
It's not the first time that I chose the wrong thing instead
(Tell my momma that I'm sorry cause I'm high again)

I'd give it all
Through fires I will stand tall
Breathe in the smoke, til both my lungs are burned raw
It's always me in the end
Why's it always me in the end?

Yeah you know I tried materializing what I need
(What I need)
But as the loneliness envelops me
I was left with nothing but a dream

Tell my momma that I'm sorry cause I'm high again
(I'm higher)
It's not the first time I was told that I need thicker skin
(It's not the first time I was told that I need thicker skin)

I'd give it all
Through fires I will stand tall
Breathe in the smoke, til both my lungs are burned raw
It's always me in the end
Why's it always me in the end?
I'd give it all
Through fires I will stand tall
Breathe in the smoke, til both my lungs are burned raw
It's always me in the end
Why's it always me in the end?

I'd give it all
Through fires I will stand tall
Breathe in the smoke, til both my lungs are burned raw
It's always me in the end
It's always me in the end
