

Fools Gold

Calling All Captains

It's been a couple days
Since I've seen your face
I guess I'm trying to say
Home is a different place
Do you still think of me?
Do you still think of me?
Cause I still think of you
Cause I still think of you, fuck

Whoa, oh, oh
Whoa, oh, oh

I've got a lump in my throat
That started on the coast
I've got a heart that's broke
And I'm not much different
(Not much different)
I'm just so sick from it
(I'm just so sick from it)

I hope those single nights alone
Are better than when I was coming home
(Coming home)
And now I come back to an empty room
(Come back to an empty room)
Guess it was all just too much for you

I hope it's easier now
Without me
I wonder if you'll notice I'm gone

It's been a couple days
Since I've seen your face
I wonder how you're doing
Do you still stay up late?
Forget to wash your face?
You're still a beauty when you're sleeping

I still have lonely nights
They're exhausting when I can't sleep
I feel you reaching for me
So I count back from ten
Hoping to see you again
But still be wishing you'd be better without me

I take it day by day
But I still feel the same
I wonder if you noticed I'm gone

It's been a couple days
Since I've seen your face
I wonder how you're doing
Do you still stay up late?
Forget to wash your face
You're still a beauty when you're sleeping
Do you still think of me?
Cause I still think of you

Do you still think of me?
Cause I still think of you

Whoa, oh, oh
Whoa, oh, oh

Do you still think of me?
Cause I still think of you

Do you still think of me?
Do you still think of me?
Cause I still think of you
Cause I still think of you

It's been a couple days
Since I've seen your face
I wonder how you're doing
Do you still stay up late?
Forget to wash your face
You're still a beauty when you're sleeping
Do you still think of me?
Cause I still think of you
Do you still think of me?
Cause I still think of you
