

Unlike Me

Calling All Captains

Have you ever felt anything at all?
Why stand so tall?
When we both know that I'm going to fall

Why do I feel so fucking worthless all the time
I feel it all the time
Like rip a couple pages out from my book
And maybe you could pass a little time
Fuck the world, drown it out
It's a prison, no doubt
Find a way to stay inside my mind
Maybe I could spare a little time

Trying hard to be something
Unlike me
Another day to be nothing
That's so like me

Say what you want, say what you will
I swear nobodies actin' chill
They step over each other
And lie to one another
Just the thought of that shit makes me ill

Have you ever felt anything at all?
Why stand so tall?
When we both know that I'm going to fall

Trying hard to be something
Unlike me
Another day to be nothing
That's so like me
I've never hated anyone like I hate me
Never stood a chance on my own
Can't do anything
Still trying hard to be something
That's unlike, that's unlike me

(That's unlike me)
(That's unlike me)

Trying hard to be something
Another day to be nothing
That's so like me
