Don't Go

Calvin Richardson

In the mist of the pouring rain
All malekeum misfits of the atmosphere are purified
Like all the hurt and pains of life strains
Are removed from the body of a beautiful woman
Through every tear held back that she don't cry

Your eyes like heaven's windowpane
With the strength of an athlete
With a touch so gently
Brought mighty mighty Hercules to his knees

God told Adams no
Eve made him say; yes, yes
Her smell so sweet
Her body waves so unique
Makes a man complete
Surely I'll eat for just one more taste of your nectar
Please don't leave

What's the problem now girl
Thought you said you'd be with me from now
Through thick and thin
And I took your word girl
Are you contemplating leaving me (say no) aah no
Your love is like the petals of a rose (don't go)
Insecurities get the hell away from me (yea, yeah) pleaseeeee (don't go)

I just wanna praise you
Let me take you to Jamaica girl (don't go) just don't go
I hope these feelings are contagious
Thank God everyday he made you girl (just don't go)
My world would be incomplete babe
If he took you from me baby (don't go)
No, no, nooo (umm hum)

I'll do anything to see you smile (ooh ooh)
Sunday morning I'll be Making silly faces up in church
Till the preacher kicks me out (just to see you smile)
Guess what I'm trying to say is
I'll be a clown (woo huh)
So you don't ever have to think about our love
Baby you can trust
When everything around us falls down
Standing it is us
Still love (na na na na)

I just wanna praise you
Let me take you to Jamaica girl (don't go) just don't go
I hope these feelings are contagious
Thank God everyday he made you girl (don't go) don't go
My life would be incomplete babe
If he took you from me baby (don't go) don't go
No, no, nooo (umm hum)

I just wanna praise you
Let me take you to Jamaica girl (don't go) just don't go

I hope these feelings are contagious
